Bible Direction for Life

WELCOME TO WESTSIDE

Westside Baptist Church is a place where everyday people, just like yourself, can experience God's love in a real and personal way. We are founded on the Bible and committed to sharing the timeless truths contained in its pages. Through straight-forward preaching from God's Word, reverent worship, and fervent prayer, lives are impacted and inspired for spiritual growth every week here at Westside.

Pastor Craig Houston

We hope you feel at home. Whatever your ethnic or cultural background, whether you are single or married, young or just young at heart, we would love to learn more about you and help you find your joy and satisfaction in Jesus Christ.

If you are looking for a gospel-centered church on the Kitsap Peninsula, or if we could serve you in any way, please let us know.

Grace and Peace,

WELCOME PASTOR MONTY SIMAO

*Scandia Bible Church
Poulsbo, Washington*

Monty Simao pastors Scandia Bible Church in Poulsbo, Washington and is co-owner of MAD Custom Coating in Bremerton (a stone's throw from Westside Baptist Church). Monty's passion whether behind the pulpit or in the home is the richness of the Gospel and how all areas of the Christian's life are transformed by the finished work of Christ. He and his wife

Celeste have eight children, seven daughters and one son, Isaiah, who is now with the Lord. Monty enjoys theological tomes, restful sabbaths, and spending time with his beautiful wife of 22 years and their wonderful children.

TOGETHER IN SCRIPTURE

Genesis Week Four – 4:1–26

Context: Setting the Table

Following the magnificent introduction of 1:1–2:3, the first of the ten sections of Genesis (2:4–4:26) details the “history of the heavens and the earth.” After relating how abundantly God provided for his image bearers (2:4–2:25), Moses told the sad tale of our first parents’ rebellion against their Creator (3:1–3:24). Chapter 4 concludes this first section with an account of Cain and his ever-worsening line of descendants.

Content: Hearing the Text

Read Genesis 4:1–26 together out loud.

Credo: Believing the Truth

Eve was exultant. She had gained a son! Perhaps Cain would be the seed the Lord had promised, the one who would undo the devastation their rebellion had unleashed. She was mistaken. In a fit of jealous rage, Cain murdered his brother Abel, deepening the curse and launching a line of descendants that seemed to grow worse with each passing year. Yet no matter how deep the darkness became, it could not and would not extinguish a hope that God himself continued to keep alive.

Conduct: Reshaping Our Walk

Jealousy does not have to lead to murder to be destructive. What are some of the ways in which we, even as followers of Christ, can give way to jealousy when the Lord seems to bless others more than he does us?

Examples: Enviously wishing we had the obedient/talented/successful children of someone else we know; Assuming that others are always hypocrites who don’t deserve the blessings they’ve received.

Though Eve’s exultation over the birth of Cain turned out to be sadly misplaced, God’s plan of redemption was neither derailed or detoured. How might we be tempted to needlessly lose hope because of the challenges we face in our own day?

Book of the Month

J. I. Packer's Knowing God has become a classic of the Christian faith. It helps draw us closer in our relationship with God. It brings together two important facets of the Christian faith — knowing about God and also knowing God through the context of a close relationship with the person of Jesus Christ. Written in an engaging and practical tone, this thought-provoking work seeks to transform and enrich the Christian understanding of God, explaining both who God is and how we can relate to him.
