WELCOME TO WESTSIDE

Westside Baptist Church is a place where everyday people, just like yourself, can experience God's love in a real and personal way. We are founded on the Bible and committed to sharing the timeless truths contained in its pages. Through straight-forward preaching from God's Word, reverent worship, and fervent prayer, lives are impacted and inspired for spiritual growth every week here at Westside.

Pastor Craig Houston

We hope you feel at home. Whatever your ethnic or cultural background, whether you are single or married, young or just young at heart, we would love to learn more about you and help you find your joy and satisfaction in Jesus Christ.

If you are looking for a gospel-centered church on the Kitsap Peninsula, or if we could serve you in any way, please let us know.

Grace and Peace,

TOGETHER IN SCRIPTURE

Genesis 11:10–12:9

Context: Setting the Table

After the magnificent introduction of 1:1–2:3, the book of Genesis is divided into two unequal halves of five sections each. The first set of five sections (2:4–11:26) deals with the history of humanity as a whole, from its creation to the birth of Abram. In striking contrast, the second set of five sections (11:27–50:26) begins with the birth of Abram and then focuses exclusively on him and his descendants. This sixth section, the “family history” of Terah (11:27–25:11), marks the transition between these two halves.

Content: Hearing the Text

Read Genesis 11:10–12:9 together out loud.

Credo: Believing the Truth

Divided and scattered by God’s judgment after the great tower disaster, it looked increasingly unlikely that God’s image bearers would ever be able to accomplish his purposes for them. At this very moment, when the rebellion looked most unstoppable and the curse seemed most unbearable, God chose a man named Abram. What God had once commanded to Adam and to Noah, he now promised to Abram and his descendants. He promised Abram a fruitful seed of abundant descendants. He promised that he would bring that seed into covenant relationship with him. He promised that He would give that seed the land he had promised them. And—best of all—he promised that through the fulfillment of these promises, the curse would be reversed, all the scattered nations of the earth would be blessed, and God’s good purposes for creation would finally begin to be accomplished.

Conduct: Reshaping Our Walk

The amazing promises God made to Abram were never about Abram but about the fulfillment of his good purposes for the entirety of his creation. How might we be tempted to forget that the promises we have received are no different?

Example: Reducing the gospel message to one of “living your best life now.”

While true worship is a matter of the heart, genuine belief always demands an appropriate outward expression. What are some of the ways in which we might be tempted to mute our public profession of faith before the world?

Example: Being willing to remain silent rather than be shamed for being one of “those people.”

FELLOWSHIP EXHORTATION ENCOURAGEMENT GROWTH

Book of the Month

Early in the sixteenth century, legislative decree in England controlled people's access to Scripture and prohibited an English Bible. But theologian and linguist William Tyndale was determined to provide his fellow countrymen with Scripture they could read. In The Daring Mission of William Tyndale, Dr. Steven J. Lawson traces this daring mission, which was ultimately used by God to ignite the English Reformation yet would cost Tyndale his life.

Available now downstairs in the Westside Bookstore
