TOGETHER IN SCRIPTURE

John Chapter 13

Context: Setting the Table

After introducing the witnesses to Jesus in chapter one, John recorded the public ministry of Jesus in chapters two through eleven, focusing in particular on his first six signs, each of which called for belief. Chapter twelve summarizes Christ's public ministry and marks the coming of his long-awaited "hour."

Beginning with this thirteenth chapter and continuing through his prayer in chapter seventeen, Jesus will focus on preparing his disciples for his soon-coming crucifixion.

Content: Hearing the Text

Read John 13 together out loud.

Credo: Believing the Truth

Jesus knew who he was—God of God, fully equal with the Father. He knew that his hour had come. He knew the betrayal he was about to endure. He knew the cup he was about to drink. And yet, as he approached the end, Jesus was focused, not on himself, but on his disciples. They needed to be prepared for his departure. They needed to be taught how to serve one another. They needed to be commanded to love one another. In short, they needed to be able to show the world the difference that being a disciple of Jesus was intended to make. His disciples today need no less.

Conduct: Reshaping Our Walk

Discuss the meaning of the text and then walk through the following application questions as you discuss the difference this meaning ought to make in our lives today.

In what areas of our life are we tempted to consider ourselves "blessed" because of things that we "know" but don't actually put into practice?

EXAMPLES: "Knowing" how to witness, "knowing" how to serve others etc.

What are some of the ways in which our love for other believers can be motivated more by shared preferences than a shared Savior?

EXAMPLES: Always showing our "love" to those believers we have other reasons to like while excluding those that we find difficult.

Book of the Month

The book of the month for April is All of Grace by Charles H. Spurgeon. All of Grace is a simple and eloquent presentation of salvation through grace alone. This classic text brought into contemporary English is both a perfect introduction to salvation and an assurance of it for unbelievers and the saved alike. "It is not the object of this book to ask anything of you, but to tell you that salvation is ALL OF GRACE, which means, free, gratis, for nothing."

Available in the Westside Bookstore
