WELCOME TO WESTSIDE

Westside Baptist Church is a place where everyday people, just like yourself, can experience God's love in a real and personal way. We are founded on the Bible and committed to sharing the timeless truths contained in its pages. Through straight-forward preaching from God's Word, reverent worship, and fervent prayer, lives are impacted and inspired for spiritual growth every week here at Westside.

TOGETHER IN SCRIPTURE

Genesis Week Three – 2:4–2:25

Context: Setting the Table

After the magnificent prologue of 1:1–2:3, we find the first of the ten headings that serve to structure the book of Genesis. Continuing until the end of chapter 4, this “history of the heavens and the earth” details the Lord God’s loving care for his image bearers before relating the sad story of how the very good creation of 1:31 was transformed into the sin-cursed world of rebels we now inhabit.

Content: Hearing the Text

Read Genesis 2:4–2:25 together out loud.

Credo: Believing the Truth

When the Lord God made the earth and the heavens, he made sure that everything was very good. He formed man from the dust of the ground, an earthling from the earth. He planted a garden, providing the first man with both a lovely home and a satisfying job. Knowing that it was not good for this man to labor alone, he built a helper altogether suitable for him. Both uniquely distinctive and absolutely equal, this first couple complemented each other perfectly and clung to each other passionately. Though the coming of the curse complicated the replication of this creational pattern, it has in no way altered God’s design for those who bear his image.

Conduct: Reshaping Our Walk

Work, far from being a result of the curse, was created as God’s very good gift to mankind. How might you be tempted to think your life would be better without it?

Examples: Viewing retirement as a “perpetual vacation” rather than as an opportunity to invest in others; Complaining about the necessity of work while idolizing a life without labor; laziness.

No matter how drastically our culture re-defines marriage, God’s creational intent remains the same—one man and one woman, uniquely distinctive yet absolutely equal, clinging to one another in love as they work together to carry out the tasks God has given them. What are some of the ways in which we as believers can be tempted to deviate from this pattern?

Examples: Men ignoring the full equality of women, women envying the distinctive role of men; Couples neglecting the importance of romance or forgetting the value of working together side-by-side, etc.

Book of the Month

J. I. Packer's Knowing God has become a classic of the Christian faith. It helps draw us closer in our relationship with God. It brings together two important facets of the Christian faith — knowing about God and also knowing God through the context of a close relationship with the person of Jesus Christ. Written in an engaging and practical tone, this thought-provoking work seeks to transform and enrich the Christian understanding of God, explaining both who God is and how we can relate to him.
