Bible Direction for Life

WELCOME TO WESTSIDE

Westside Baptist Church is a place where everyday people, just like yourself, can experience God's love in a real and personal way. We are founded on the Bible and committed to sharing the timeless truths contained in its pages. Through straight-forward preaching from God's Word, reverent worship, and fervent prayer, lives are impacted and inspired for spiritual growth every week here at Westside.

Pastor Craig Houston

We hope you feel at home. Whatever your ethnic or cultural background, whether you are single or married, young or just young at heart, we would love to learn more about you and help you find your joy and satisfaction in Jesus Christ.

If you are looking for a gospel-centered church on the Kitsap Peninsula, or if we could serve you in any way, please let us know.

Grace and Peace,

TOGETHER IN SCRIPTURE

Genesis 9

Context: Setting the Table

Following a magnificent introduction (1:1–2:3), the “history of the heavens and the earth” (2:4–4:26) relates God’s wonderful provision for his image bearers, their wicked rebellion, and the increasing perversion of the line of Cain. The second section, the “book of the generations of Adam,” (5:1–6:8) tells of the line of Seth and its eventual corruption. Chapter 9 concludes the third section, “the family history of Noah” (6:9–9:29), with the institution of human government, the sign of the rainbow, and the sad end of Noah’s story.

Content: Hearing the Text

Read Genesis 9 together out loud.

Credo: Believing the Truth

The great flood was finally over. God had given his word—never again would he destroy the earth for the sake of mankind. Yet though the great flood had cleansed the earth, it had not changed the evil inclinations of rebellious human hearts. To preserve humanity from destruction until the coming of the promised Redeemer, God instituted human government, giving humans both the right and the responsibility to punish the wickedness of other humans. By placing his bow in the clouds, God established a perpetual reminder of his gracious forbearance until the right time for the setting forth of his righteousness should come. Nothing, not even the folly of Noah and the wickedness of his children, could de-rail God’s plan to accomplish his good purposes for his creation.

Conduct: Reshaping Our Walk

How might we be tempted to either undervalue or overvalue the covenant signs—the water of baptism, the bread and cup of communion—that God has given us?

Examples: Overvaluing—placing our hope of salvation in the sign rather than the word of the One who has given it to us; Undervaluing—treating baptism and communion as more or less dispensable matters of no particular importance.

In what ways are we tempted to go beyond the demands of justice and truth by needlessly discussing the sins and weaknesses of others?

Examples: Gossiping to others about situations we have neither the obligation nor the ability to address in person; Participating in the “outrage” click-bait that so dominates social media.

Book of the Month

Early in the sixteenth century, legislative decree in England controlled people's access to Scripture and prohibited an English Bible. But theologian and linguist William Tyndale was determined to provide his fellow countrymen with Scripture they could read. In The Daring Mission of William Tyndale, Dr. Steven J. Lawson traces this daring mission, which was ultimately used by God to ignite the English Reformation yet would cost Tyndale his life.
