Bible Direction for Life

WELCOME TO WESTSIDE

Westside Baptist Church is a place where everyday people, just like yourself, can experience God's love in a real and personal way. We are founded on the Bible and committed to sharing the timeless truths contained in its pages. Through straight-forward preaching from God's Word, reverent worship, and fervent prayer, lives are impacted and inspired for spiritual growth every week here at Westside.

TOGETHER IN SCRIPTURE

Genesis Chapter 6:9-22

Context: Setting the Table

After a splendid prologue (1:1–2:3), the “history of the heavens and the earth,” (2:4–4:26), relates God’s abundant provision for his image bearers, their initial rebellion, and the ever-increasing wickedness of the line of Cain. The second section, the “book of the generations of Adam,” focuses on the corruption of the once-godly line of Seth. This third section, “the family history of Noah,” (6:9–29) tells the story of the great flood judgment and God’s gracious rescue of Noah and his family.

Content: Hearing the Text

Read Genesis 6:9-22 together out loud.

Credo: Believing the Truth

As we discussed in our introductory week, the book of Genesis is divided into two unequal halves of five “family histories” each. The first half begins with “the history of the heavens and the earth”; the second with the “family history of Terah” which details the call of Abram. The “family history of Noah” is the central and by far the longest section in the first half of the book. Although humanity had thoroughly ruined the earth, they had not ruined God’s promised plan of redemption. In the midst of the relentless corruption of mankind, corruption so great it demanded a universal flood, God established his gracious covenant with Noah and his family. God’s good purposes for his creation could not, would not, and will not be thwarted by the rebellion of his image bearers.

Conduct: Reshaping Our Walk

What are some of the ways in which we are tempted to settle for simply being “better” than those around us, setting our standards by what “everyone is doing,” rather than by the unchanging righteousness of God’s character?

Examples: The clothes that we wear, the language that we use, the movies that we watch etc.

In order to be saved from the flood, Noah had to give up any semblance of directing the course of his future. What are some of the areas in our life in which we are tempted to reject God’s gracious deliverance in order to retain a feeling of control?

Examples: Ignoring ministry callings that don’t have a guaranteed outcome, refusing to give beyond our “budget” etc.
