WELCOME TO WESTSIDE

Westside Baptist Church is a place where everyday people, just like yourself, can experience God's love in a real and personal way. We are founded on the Bible and committed to sharing the timeless truths contained in its pages. Through straight-forward preaching from God's Word, reverent worship, and fervent prayer, lives are impacted and inspired for spiritual growth every week here at Westside.

Pastor Craig Houston

We hope you feel at home. Whatever your ethnic or cultural background, whether you are single or married, young or just young at heart, we would love to learn more about you and help you find your joy and satisfaction in Jesus Christ.

If you are looking for a gospel-centered church on the Kitsap Peninsula, or if we could serve you in any way, please let us know.

Grace and Peace,

TOGETHER IN SCRIPTURE

Genesis 26:34–27:29

Context: Setting the Table

Following its magnificent introduction, Genesis divides into two unequal halves of five sections each. The first half of the book (2:4–11:26) deals with the history of humanity as a whole, from its creation to the birth of Abram. The second half of the book (11:27–50:26) focuses on the history of the patriarchs. This section narrates Isaac's failed scheme to secretly bless his favorite son Esau and Rebekah's successful plot to steal Esau's blessing for her favorite son Jacob.

Content: Hearing the Text

Read Genesis 26:34–27:29 together out loud.

Credo: Believing the Truth

While Isaac's peaceful nature had once been his greatest strength, he now sank into passivity and selfishness. Though Rebekah's exuberant hospitality had once seen her characterized as the ideal spouse, her energy and forcefulness were now devoted to manipulative power plays. Esau was dull, violent, and animalistic. Jacob was amoral, deceitful, and conniving. Yet none of these failures could derail God's promise to bless the world through the offspring of Abraham—because that promise was grounded, not in human merit, but in God's own boundless, undeservable, unstoppable and all-transforming grace.

Conduct: Reshaping Our Walk

Both Isaac and Rebekah lived to see their greatest strengths turn into destructive weaknesses. What are some steps we can take in our own lives to keep the same thing from happening to us?

Examples: Recognizing that we are most prone to fail in those areas where we see the least danger; Maintaining ongoing accountability, even when it becomes uncomfortable, etc.

Isaac's heart was captured by his stomach—and his priorities demonstrated the fact. What do the priorities in our own lives reveal about what we love?

Examples: What we choose to give time to; What we choose to spend money on; What we are willing to alienate others for, etc.
