Bible Direction for Life

WELCOME TO WESTSIDE

Westside Baptist Church is a place where everyday people, just like yourself, can experience God's love in a real and personal way. We are founded on the Bible and committed to sharing the timeless truths contained in its pages. Through straight-forward preaching from God's Word, reverent worship, and fervent prayer, lives are impacted and inspired for spiritual growth every week here at Westside.

We hope you feel at home. Whatever your ethnic or cultural background, whether you are single or married, young or just young at heart, we would love to learn more about you and help you find your joy and satisfaction in Jesus Christ.

If you are looking for a gospel-centered church on the Kitsap Peninsula, or if we could serve you in any way, please let us know.

TOGETHER IN SCRIPTURE

Genesis 41:1–24

Context: Setting the Table

The second half of Genesis (11:27–50:26) has five sections of alternating length. The first, from 11:27–25:11, provides the “generations of Terah,” focusing on the story of Abraham. The brief second section (25:12–18) provides the generations of the passed-over line of Ishmael. The third section (25:19–35:29) provides the “generations of Isaac,” focusing on the story of Jacob. The brief fourth section (36:1–37:1) provides the generations of the passed-over line of Esau. The fifth and final section (37:2–50:26) provides the “generations of Jacob,” focusing on the stories of Joseph and Judah. In our text this week, God uses the dreams of Pharaoh to deliver Joseph from his unjust imprisonment and exalt him to the position of power and influence he had been preparing for him all along.

Content: Hearing the Text

Read Genesis 41:1–24 together out loud.

Credo: Believing the Truth

At the tender age of seventeen, Joseph’s pampered life as the favorite child of his wealthy father was rudely interrupted. Despite his brutal enslavement, God made him to prosper—and he quickly rose to become the chief overseer of Potiphar’s household. Once again, he was treacherously thrown into a pit from which there seemed no way out. Once more, God made him to prosper in the most unfavorable of circumstances, giving him the opportunity to win favor with the chief butler, an important and influential member of Pharaoh’s court—who proceeded to promptly forget Joseph the moment he was no longer needed. Yet at the very point when it must have begun to feel as though God’s hand of blessing served only to make Joseph’s life worse, God sent Pharaoh a dream that led to Joseph’s immediate exaltation to the very place of power and influence he had been preparing him for all along. God’s plans are always better than our own—even and especially when he hasn’t yet told us how.

Conduct: Reshaping Our Walk

What are some of the situations in which we might be tempted to lose hope when we do not see visible evidence of God’s faithfulness to us?

Examples: Long-term illnesses; Broken relationships; Unjust treatment by others, etc.

TOGETHER IN PRAYER

MISSIONARIES

J.D. Moses (India) – For physical strength and healing from cancer as he ministers in an ever-increasingly anti-Christian environment.

Monte Barlow (Slovenia) – Praise the Lord for a young couple who was saved just before the Barlow's left for furlough. The Lord has been working on their hearts, and they are following the Lord in important steps of obedience.

Book of the Month Discussion

Why do our families have so much power over us? In The Storm-Tossed Family, bestselling author Russell Moore teaches readers whether you are married or single, whether you long for a child or shepherding a full house, you are part of a family. Family is difficult because family—every family—is an echo of the gospel. Family can make us who we are, and family can break our hearts. The only safe harbor for a storm-tossed family is a nail-scarred home.
